Editorial

Hidden away from the headlines behind a smokescreen of reports on the 2012 London Olympics, Queen Elizabeth II's Diamond Jubilee and Euro-2012, is the news that the UK population is now officially estimated to be 15% non-white. That figure is of course not entirely accurate as it cannot factor in the unknown numbers of illegal immigrants and others not lawfully resident in the UK. Given the annual increase in the birthrate of non-whites in Britain and the steady inflow of non-whites into the population by legal and illegal means, the threat to genetic make up of the British population is very real.

Unfortunately the System's politicians prefer to ignore the reality that if this trend continues, (as some Left-wing and non-Aryan elements hope it will), the White British will cease to exist at some future date.

This is something that we have warned of before in the pages of Broadsword, but the degradation of our national gene-pool is accelerating.

This situation is not helped by the 'So What?' attitude of many politically and racially ignorant citizens.

Even worse are those behind the scripts of TV soaps, dramas and advertising that insist on presenting black or Asian characters with white partners/wives or husbands, although the tendency is to show black males with white females. This of course is to present racially mixed couples as being not only the norm but desirable. Social conditioning at its worst.

Of course many young black men regard it as a sign of their success to have a tall, blonde white girlfriend. This not only serves as a signal to White British society that they have overcome its alleged 'racism' but have taken the next step to breeding them out.

We the White British are now between 80 and 85% of the majority population of our ethnic homeland.

We cannot let the situation get any worse !

National Socialism is the only solution.

WE WILL HAVE OUR COUNTRY BACK !

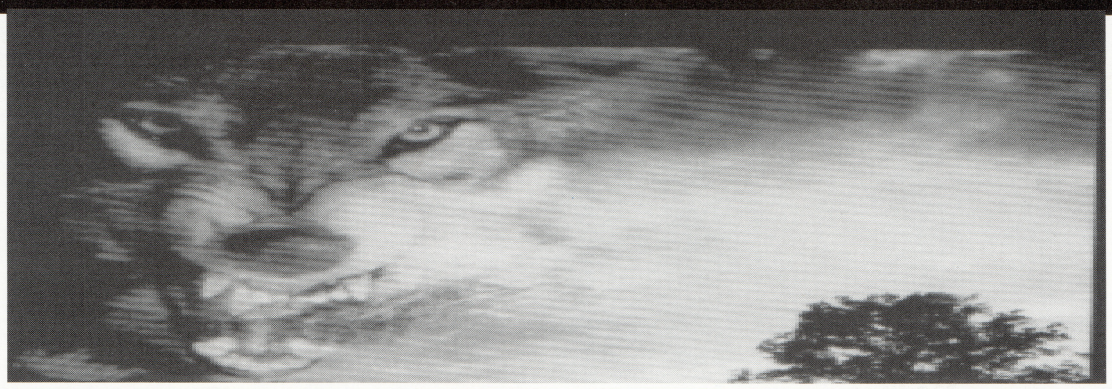
THE WEREWOLF COLUMN



YOUTH IS THE WAY FORWARD !
Building Up the Youth Wing of British Movement is to Build the Cadres of the National Socialist Revolution of Tomorrow

Many of those who are now organising and leading British National Socialism were first introduced to racial Nationalist politics by their involvement as teenagers in the ranks of the Young National Front or Young British Movement.

The youth rebellion of the late 1970's and the early 1980's was to embrace the struggle on the streets, in schools and colleges and on the football terraces against the forces of multi-racial Britain and multi-culturalism. There can be no doubt that it was a period of learning racial politics and political struggle the hard way, but youthful energy and enthusiasm made its mark.

Now the time has come to re-energise the White youth of Britain, to offer a new generation the excitement and adventure of a radical political and ideological path.

Young Wolf is the Youth Section of British Movement and it brings the spirit and traditions of the Young British Movement of the early 1980's.

The youth of today are the National Socialist activists and leaders of tomorrow.

When the audience at Blood and Honour gigs sing along to 'Tomorrow Belongs to Me', the spirit and meaning of that National Socialist anthem needs to be transmitted down to a new generation, to open the eyes, hearts and minds of a new wave of youngsters into the ranks of our cause.

Two British National Socialist slogans spring to mind as the embodiment of the youth division of British Movement;

"We Are Not The Last Of Yesterday
But The First Of Tomorrow!"

and of course the '14 Words'

" We Must Secure The Existence Of Our People And A Future For White Children."

We can only achieve the reality of those slogans if a new and up and coming generation and be brought into the world of National Socialism and British racial Nationalist politics.

Youth is the way forward - Young Wolf carries with it the natural rebellion of youth and the desire to build a better world.

Young Wolf rejects the old order of the British political system and the 'Old Gang' politics of multi-cultural Britain.

Young Wolf raises the Sunwheel banner in defiance and recalls the Werwolf spirit of National Socialist resistance.

The Nature of the Enemy

Anti-fascist demonstrators, St Enoch Square, Glasgow. 2012 Protesting against the presence of the Scottish Defence League (SDL)

Their placards read 'EDL = BNP Keep Glasgow Nazi Free'

As ever the bulk of the protesters are either White British students or White middle class leftists. A token Asian protester can be seen in this group of the politically misguided.

MULTI-RACIAL MADNESS

Broadsword looks at the stories and incidents drawn from across the media in Britain that best illustrate the depths into which our country has sunk as the Government, the media, the police and the Race Relations industry conspire against the indigenous British people to impose a multi-cultural society on Britain. How British culture, values and traditions are undermined by political correctness, minority interests and racial equality. Stories which reveal the harsh reality of life in a multi-cultural Britain and the betrayal of the White British majority population.

Scotland Yard Ban the Use of the Word 'Blacklist' to Avoid Sounding 'Racist'!

In the best traditions of political correctness, the Metropolitan Police are to stop using the term 'blacklist' because it could be considered 'racist'.

It seems that the forces of political correctness dislike the negative connotations of the term blacklist and as such Scotland Yard are seeking to move towards what they call,
"more appropriate phrasing".

However the Met's obsession with being seen as sensitive to all and any possible accusations of racial bias did not go down well with the Police Federation who were quoted as saying,
" There are far more important issues at stake in the future of British policing than to waste time concerned with such trivial matters as this."

How Can An Illegal Immigrant from Zambia Cheat the Welfare System and Remain in Britain? Answer: Seek the Protection of the Human Rights Act.

In 2011 the benefits fraud team at the offices of the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea received a tip off about an illegal immigrant who was using a fake British passport to make her eligible for a flat on the Sutton Estate in Chelsea.
An investigation followed, an arrest was made and Zambian national Joy Chishimba pleaded guilty to possession of a false passport and four counts of benefit fraud, which included a total of £34,000, comprising £30,000 housing benefit and £4,000 of income support. Chisimba received a 10 month suspended sentence and was destined to be evicted from the property in Chelsea and also faced deportation. But then her legal team kicked in.
The Home Office were persuaded to grant her discretionary leave to remain in Britain until at least 2014. The eviction from the flat was halted after Chishimba demanded a review of her case, and her deportation is being challenged by her lawyers on the grounds that Chishimba has a two year old daughter who was born in the UK. Joy Chishimba is a single mother, therefore the two year old child is dependent on her mother and Chishimba's legal team are evoking Article 8 of the Human Rights Act 1988, stating that deportation would separate Chishimba from her daughter, (the child has a legal right to remain in the UK being 'British born'.) Article 8 guarantees a right to family life, so Joy Chishimba stays in the UK.

A TEENAGER was left for dead after being chased and savagely beaten by a gang of Asians in a suspected racist attack.

Daniel Stringer, 17, was pursued through a busy town centre by up to eight men and then repeatedly kicked and punched in the head.

He was left in the road, bleeding and barely conscious, as the gang melted away into the night.

Police say there is no evidence of provocation and are treating the attack as a serious hate crime.

Daniel's family issued pictures of the teenager lying seriously ill in hospital with a fractured skull and

'I'm lucky to still have him'

fractured eye socket. They say the nerves behind his eyes have been damaged and he could be left with impaired vision.

'I wish someone would tell me why they left my baby for dead in the road,' said his mother Cheryl Stringer. 'I'm lucky to still have him.

'We don't know the extent of the damage behind his eye until his swelling goes down.

'He then needs plastic surgery on the eye socket that they broke in two places. He also has several fractures to his cheek that need plastic surgery and he also has a fractured skull.

'It's going to be a long, long battle for my gorgeous boy. I still can't understand why they left him in the road to die.'

Daniel, still in great pain, told how he was cornered by the gang after they chased him through the town.

'They were older than me,' he said. 'One of them grabbed me. He hit me in the face and that's about all I can remember.

'I'm upset and feel really down. Why me? I don't know why they chose me.'

The incident occurred at about 10.15pm last Saturday when he and his best friend Kavan Brown, also 17, were walking in Hyde, Greater Manchester, when they passed a takeaway. Inside was a group of Asian men and a woman. Without provocation one of the men produced a knife and made a threatening gesture at the teenagers through the window, suggesting they were going to have their throats cut.

The pair walked on, but moments later the group spilled into the street and began to run towards them. Daniel fell over and was set upon as he lay on the ground.

He had emergency surgery after the attack and will need to return to hospital when doctors attempt to rebuild his right cheek with a metal plate. Kavan, whose nose was broken in the attack, said: 'I just can't understand why it happened. I'd never seen any of them in my life before.'

Police said there were seven or eight offenders who are described as being Asian, and in their late teens or early 20s.

They are investigating the assault as a hate crime.

Last night police had a man of 21 in custody on suspicion of assault.

Was this boy beaten senseless because he's white?

Surgery: Daniel in hospital

This article appeared in the ' Daily Mail' in February 2012
At the time the story generated a lot of local and regional interest. The fact that the attackers were part of an Asian gang made the issue a political 'hot-potato' and the police and local 'community leaders' were out in force to defuse local tensions. Of course all the usual voices were raised to tell the 'Far-Right' to stay away and keep out of it.
The deafening silence that has followed in the national media since this story first broke is a sad testimony to how such stories are treated by the heavily politicised and controlled British press. Contrast this story with the media frenzy around the case of Stephen Lawrence - see Broadsword issue 43.

THEY made hundreds of thousands of pounds from dealing in drugs.

But members of a gang jailed for selling heroin and crack cocaine in the Portsmouth area have been ordered to repay just a few hundred pounds.

At a confiscation hearing, a court heard that Austin Stanbury – who is serving a 10-year prison sentence – led a luxury lifestyle and benefited to the tune of £288,159.82 from his role as the gang's leader.

But under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, Stanbury, 28, of Balfour Road, Ilford, Essex, will repay only £1.

She is currently serving a six-year jail sentence.

John Scott, of Portsmouth and his lifestyle is £12,000.

'There being no other assets, there must be a nominal £1 confiscation.'

Gresley Close, East London, was found to have benefited £200 from his involvement and ordered to repay £1.

Rebecca Willems of Belgrave Road, Walthamstow in east London, and Katheline Kombey of Swan Road in south east London, were both found not to have benefited from their involvement as drugs mules.

The £20 Kombey and £100 Willems had on them at the time of their arrests was ordered to be forfeited.

Every year the memorial marches and rallies suffer the double indignity of having to virtually beg the German police and civil authorities for permission to mark the anniversary of the mass bombing of Dresden in 1945; in addition the memorials face disruption and physical attack by assorted anarchists, Left-wing thugs and self-styled anti-racists/anti-fascists. Some Leftists have actually declared their approval of the Allied aerial onslaught and the deaths of thousands.

Without doubt the emergence of the Greek racial Nationalist and pro-NS Golden Dawn has rattled the cages of the British liberal media and soft-Left journalists. Suddenly every press scribbler was an expert on the Golden Dawn, despite the fact that immediately prior to Golden Dawn erupting onto the scene in the May 2012 elections few British journalists had heard of the organisation.

The sudden and rapid success of such a racially aware organisation at a time of economic and political crisis has created a model that has the Left terrified. Golden Dawn has successfully mobilised support amongst the Greek electorate around issues of race, unwanted immigration and asylum seekers. The Left and the liberals are now panicking and asking - 'Could this be repeated elsewhere in Europe or even in Britain?"

Liberal Panic and EU Objections Over Golden Dawn Electoral Success

ATHENS

May 2012 -The Golden Dawn takes over 7% of the vote in the Greek General Elections giving the openly pro-National Socialist party a foothold in the Greek parliament, with potentially 21 representatives. Leader of the Golden Dawn, Nikolaos Michaloliakos, told the assembled world media.

"The Europe of the nations returns, Greece is only the beginning!"

Predictably the mainstream news media in Britain and elsewhere has been 'outraged' that so many Greeks could vote for such a 'racist', anti-immigrant, anti-semitic party. Could it be that those liberal and leftist media political commentators are missing the point ?

June 2012 - despite all the media hype and the usual dirty tricks by the democratic political parties, Golden Dawn entered the second Greek elections and once again polled well. Only slightly reduced, Golden Dawn remained at around 7% holding on to 18 parliamentary seats.

FRANCE

Liberal Panic Over Front National Electoral Success

The Front National is a populist nationalist political party, not a National Socialist party, not even a racial nationalist party, but even so it is classed as being on the political 'Far-Right' by most liberal and left-wing commentators.

Yet still the liberal and left-wing elements both inside France and across Europe have begun to worry and in some cases panic as Marine Le Pen led the FN to third place in the first round of the French presidential elections taking 17.9% of the vote, with an estimated 6.4 million French voters casting their ballot for Marine Le Pen.

The French Left are starting to panic as the Front National looks to build on this level of electoral success and hopes to win seats to the French parliament in the parliamentary elections in June. Race, immigration, Islamic terrorism and hatred for the power of the European Union and the Euro is driving French voters to support the Front National.

Jane Martinson on the Rochdale grooming trial

The Asian Sex-Grooming Cases
More Trials, More Arrests - More Official Denials

No sooner had the sentences been passed down at Liverpool Crown Court on the guilty men from Rochdale and Heywood, than news broke that there were more arrests taking place in Rochdale, and the news was quietly reported that at Carlisle Crown Court, Azad Mish, a 44 year old Bangladeshi, and owner of an Asian restaurant had been found guilty of sex offences involving underage girls and running a brothel.

Yet still the media, the police, the Government and the Race relations industry insist that these cases are not about race. Amazingly, one of the few honest voices in the Establishment has been that of Asian Tory Lady Sayeeda Warsi, who stated the following,

" There is a small minority of Pakistani men who believe that white girls are fair game"* and also *" This small minority who see women as second class citizens, and white women probably as third class citizens are to be spoken out against."

Broadsword says : 'Are they just a small minority?'

Typical Media Response To the Asian Sex-Grooming Cases

Blame Anyone But The Actual Criminals !

Above we illustrate the front page of the 'Guardian' G2 supplement, with an almost unbelievable cover statement. The left/left-wing media has twisted and turned every aspect of these cases in order to 'defuse' any hint of race or any suggestion that race has been an issue.

Far-right groups 'exploiting child sex case'

Matthew Taylor
Haroon Siddique

Far-right groups are exploiting the conviction of nine men who were part of a gang that groomed girls for sex to create a "climate of hate" against Muslims, community leaders have warned.

Muslim groups say they have seen an upsurge in hate mail and abusive phone calls since the trial ended this week and community leaders are bracing themselves for more islamophobic attacks on individual Muslims and mosques across the UK.

"We are already receiving hate mail and hate phone calls even though we issued a very strong statement condemning those involved," said a spokesman for the Muslim Council of Britain. "If it can happen to MCB, you can just imagine what ordinary Muslims are facing as they go about their day-to-day business."

Eight of the nine men convicted at Liverpool crown court for their involvement in a gang in Rochdale, Greater Manchester, that sexually exploited girls were of Pakistani heritage, and Muslim groups say far-right organisations such as the British National party and the English Defence League (EDL) have used the trial to demonise and abuse the entire community.

Fiyaz Mughal, from Faith Matters, which has set up a new helpline to monitor anti-Muslim attacks, said the Islamophobic hatred prompted by the case had added to the "poison" against Muslims.

"This is dangerous for community relations," he said. "There's lots of discussion about 'Muslim paedos', like saying the prophet married a young girl. All of this disgusting talk is adding to the poison against Muslims."

The helpline, Tell Mama, was launched at the same time as the trial began in February. About 20% of the cases so far are linked to the EDL, Mughal said, adding: "About half of these cases are online activity where there is invariably a mention of 'Muslim paedos'."

Suleman Nagdi, spokesman for the Leicestershire federation of Muslim Organisations, who has held talks with EDL representatives in the past, said: "We need to tackle the problem, but people within the BNP, the EDL are increasing the rhetoric."

Security outside Liverpool crown court, where the nine men were tried, was stepped up after hundreds of EDL and BNP protesters picketed the building. The trial was almost derailed when the BNP leader, Nick Griffin, tweeted that seven verdicts had been reached. One of the defendants has now launched an appeal claiming Griffin's tweet showed jury confidentiality was breached.

Fortunately 'Red Ken' Livingstone lost the bid to return as Mayor of London, and as bad as Tory ex- public schoolboy Boris 'Bojo' Johnson is, at least Livingstone will not be in a position to fulfill a promise he made in March 2012.

As part of his election campaign, Livingstone had spoken to assembled congregation of the Finsbury Park Mosque, where he promised that should he succeed and be re-elected as Mayor of London, he would, " I want to spend the next four years making sure that every non-Muslim in London knows and understands its (the Koran's) words and message."
Not only would he spend London tax-payers money to achieve this unwanted agenda, but he also stated that, " Will help to cement our city as a beacon that demonstrates the meaning of the words of the Prophet."

Was this just Livingstone trying to secure hundreds of thousands of Muslim votes across London ?
Was it just a personal view of Ken Livingstone or perhaps part of an officially sanctioned Labour Party policy ?

Suburban Cinderella

By Neil Sears and Chris Greenwood

Romanian couple kept slave girl of seven barefoot and in rags at their London home

A ROMANIAN gipsy couple were last night jailed for bringing a child into Britain and keeping her as a slave.

She was saved only when a 53-year-old man similarly kept as a slave in the garden shed of the family's London council house escaped – and told police of a 'Cinderella' used as a servant.

Astonished officers found the seven-year-old girl had been forced to sleep on the floor, had no possessions beyond the filthy clothes she was wearing and had been 'beaten like a carpet'.

She had been kept barefoot and eight of her black rotten teeth had to be removed. She was unable to count to ten in her own language. The family's eight children, meanwhile, wore fashionable clothes, and were allowed to go to school – when not out working for their parents as trained thieves and beggars. The family used money from crime and benefits to buy 'palaces' in Romania.

Judge Shani Barnes, who noted that much-criticised Haringey council had failed to respond to repeated reports of a man being kept in a shed, said she was appalled such crimes could be committed in 21st-century London.

Yesterday husband and wife Aurel-Ilie Zlatea, 45, and Alexandra Oale, 44, and their sons Martian Neamu, 25, and Florin Zlatea, 23, were jailed for between nine and 13 years for a series of offences. The sons had also battered and raped their adult slave after he asked for food on New Year's Eve.

All maintained their innocence but were convicted at a six-week trial. Judge Barnes told them: 'You stole this sweet and innocent little girl's childhood by your neglect and cruelty. I can only imagine the purpose was to train her as a servant for your family. There is no evidence of you giving her any care whatsoever. By the time she was six she had been your servant for years.

She slept on the floor, never owned shoes, and had only the clothes she stood up in. She washed, cooked and cleaned for you, and was described as a Cinderella, while all your own children had fashionable clothes and went to school. No one had taken the time to talk to her or hold her.'

Judge Barnes told Croydon Crown Court that the mother of the family, Oale, was 'cold, cynical and manipulative' and that her 'cruel nature' was behind the ghastly living conditions suffered by both 'slaves'.

Speaking of the man's existence as a 'filthy, cold, scavenging man living in a twilight misery', the judge added: 'It is hard to believe this was happening in leafy Wood Green in 2011.'

The jury heard that the family had employed the 53 year-old electrician

'No one had taken the time to hold her'

at their luxury gated home in Romania, took his ID card and driving licence from him, and in 2010 brought him to Britain.

In London, he found the Cinderella girl working for the family. She had been a daughter of Zlatea's cleaner, and he had persuaded her to give him the child 'for a better life'.

This article appeared in the 'Daily Mail' Friday April 20th 2012 and offers yet another window on kind of crimes that the assorted ethnic minority groups bring to London's streets. These people were Romanian gypsies and as the 'Daily Mail' pointed out, they were also keeping a 53 year old man as a slave at the Haringey address (he lived in a garden shed!)

WE WILL HAVE OUR COUNTRY BACK !

Spreading the Word
Getting the National Socialist Message Out on the Streets

In the words of the late John Tyndall, "The vast majority of people are not capable of assimilating a message. particularly a political one, unless it is drummed into their minds again and again and again."
Propaganda must have an impact, be eye-catching, and memorable to be effective.
To quote 'JT' again - "The party message must be hammered into the public consciousness until it is neither ignored nor forgotten."
That is why British Movement has adopted two simple slogans that sum up its political message; '14 words' and 'We Will Have Our Country Back!'
British Movement activists and supporters should ensure that both those slogans become engrained in the public mind as being associated with British Movement and the British National Socialist cause.

We Must Secure the Existence of Our People and A Future For White Children!
14 Words

The 14 Words are a simple, explicit statement of faith. It is the essence of post-1945 National Socialism, framed by the American NS activist David Lane as a shortened version of a longer piece of political writing by Adolf Hitler, but retaining the original meaning. The 14 Words are unambiguous, there can be no misinterpretation of the ideal. This is not a statement of hatred for other races or ethnic groups, it is a demand for the right to exist as a racial group and the open expression of the need to preserve and defend the racial heritage of all the families and tribes of the White Race.

" We Must Awaken and Mobilize Our Country to Save Itself by Heroic Measures Before the Sands of Time and Fate Run Out "

STRENGTH

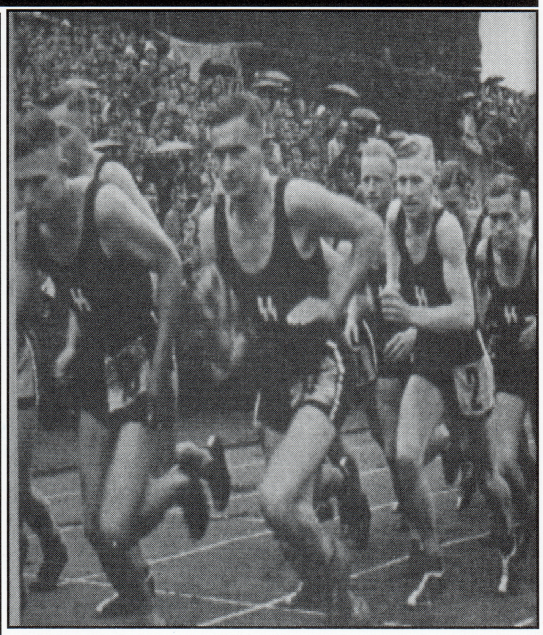
JOY !

A National Socialist Approach
To A Healthy Lifestyle and Physical Fitness



WHY WE NEED TO LIVE CLEAN AND HEALTHY LIVES

" You cannot run away from weakness; you must some time fight it out or perish; and if that be so, why not now, and where you stand? " Robert Lewis Stevenson.

National Socialism in the 1930's and 1940's put great emphasis on physical fitness, physical education, healthy living and creative and healthy pastimes. Be it through sport, hobbies or other recreation 'Strength Through Joy' was the motivation for a healthy, active population who lived with healthy minds and healthy bodies.

In this issue of Broadsword this article continues the themes set out in the first article of this series; 'Why we need to live clean and healthy lives.'

The Motivational Prime Directive.

To repeat the warning of the last issue;
As we, as a nation, become obese, lethargic, apathetic slobs, our shrinking younger generation become indoctrinated into becoming lazy 'couch potatoes' tapping away on X Box and Play Station 3; lobotomising themselves; smoking and popping 'recreational drugs', we are losing our foothold, our racial foothold on our own country.
The most detrimental thing anyone can do is to damage their own health. It is essential to become active, plan activity, keep busy - examine your lifestyle and be prepared to make changes.
It is no good sitting on your sofa swilling down mass produced tinned lager, munching mass produced snacks while you watch a DVD of 'Triumph of the Will' , and professing to be a National Socialist.
You either believe in National Socialism and work towards an NS lifestyle or you fall in with the 'sheeple'.

In the last issue we outlined some of the threats to our physical health and well being, the dangers posed by the pharmaceutical industry, the toxic quality of our drinking water and the slow mass poisoning of the air that we breathe.

We come again to the million dollar question - What can we do as individuals and as a movement to ensure that our race survives ?

What can we do to ensure that we are well prepared to withstand and defend our race and our country from the 'Global Conspirators' Final Solution.

First: We must deny the 'Global Conspirators' our money and not buy into their consumer empires.
Second: We must not live in denial, we must acknowledge the 'Global Conspirators' final solution is taking place and prepare to resist.

Third: We must implement damage limitation and healthy living practices into our lifestyles.
Fourth: We must cleanse and eradicate the poisons and filth in our bodies and minds. Then embark on a build and maintenance initiative. We must take positive action and introduce lifestyle changes that will build and maintain strong bodies and minds.

Our Food

The best way is to grow your own, get an allotment or section off an area of your garden to grow vegetables or soft fruits. Start up communal or branch/division gardens. I call these 'NS Family and Friend co-operatives', where the workload and the harvest is shared amongst those participating.
It is also a good way to introduce your children to the basics of 'Blood and Soil'.
Not always an easy option for city dwellers or those living in high-rise tower blocks. If your situation does not allow for growing your own, then take a long, hard look at the foodstuffs you buy and consume. Buy fresh produce from local suppliers, avoid expensive imported foods, sack off the supermarkets. Buy organic if you are certain that it is organic. < Continued on page 13>

Strength Through Joy

" What we must fight for is to safeguard the existence and reproduction of our race and our people, the sustenance of our children and the purity of our blood, the freedom and independence of the fatherland, so that our people may mature for the fulfillment of the mission allotted it by the creator of the universe."

Adolf Hitler

Our Food

Stay away from fast foods, especially the alien owned and operated city centre pizza and fried chicken outlets. Avoid processed foods, check the labels, these are basically riddled with artificial colours and preservatives.

Check labels for countries of origin - they charge you extra for flying in fruit from across the world (airmiles) and do you really want to be buying and eating oranges or onions imported from Israel ?

Booze

Swilling down ale and beer is rooted deep within our history and culture. But the alcoholic beverages our ancestors drank are a far cry from what they serve up today. Stick to real ales, or better still learn to brew your own beers, ciders and wines, using only natural ingredients like apples, pears, forest fruits, berries etc. Try brewing mead, it was the drink of choice for our Viking and Anglo-Saxon ancestors. Establishing NS owned and controlled micro-breweries are a way forward for larger branches or divisions.

Drugs

It goes without saying that as National Socialists drugs are a 'no go' area. Those who wish to poison their bodies and minds with recreational or street drugs are a lost cause to the White race.

If people, especially our youth are prepared to accept drug taking as part of their lives, not only is it a step towards accepting the decadence of the multi-racial society, but is a step towards accepting homosexuality, sexual deviance and race-mixing. Not only are they wrecking their brains and bodies with illegal narcotics but the money they spend buying these toxins goes into the pockets of the alien gangsters that they profess to hate and want out of our country.

Final Motivational Note

Take a good long hard look in the mirror. Look at your children, your grandchildren, your family and friends, burn their images deep into your mind and press SAVE.

If you ever need to search for motivation to become a functioning member of the White race, access those images and remember what you are training and fighting for.

Northern and Western Europe is the final stand of the White race, we cannot retreat any further and our backs are to the sea. If you don't act now and pull your finger out then our race will disappear and become absorbed into a mixed race nation of pepper-corn hair covered heads.

Let history not say that we did not put up a fight to save our race, and may our seed and blood pump through the veins of our children's, children's children forever !

Finally let us take a prompt from the Boy Scout motto

- Be Prepared ! -

A Healthy Mind in a Healthy Body

Modern day Spanish NS propaganda draws on an image from NS Germany in the 1930's.

They Don't Tell You This On The History Channel

"Nazi concern for racial health was also associated with efforts to improve the quality of the environment. The Nazi government provided extensive funds for research into the effects of environmental toxins on human genetic material. Scientists documented the hazardous effects of radiation and established elaborate classifications for the kinds of diseases one might expect from exposure to irritants such as asbestos or to heavy metals such as lead, cadmium and mercury. German medical journals in the 1930's and 1940's warned against the ill effects of artificial colourings and preservatives in food and drinks, and stressed a return to organic or 'natural' ingredients in pharmaceuticals, cosmetics, fertilisers, and foods. Advertisements in popular magazines boasted that their products were free of genetic poisons..... Adolf Hitler's personal physician Theodor Morell declared the pesticide DDT both useless and dangerous, and prevented its distribution until 1943 on the grounds that it posed a threat to health."

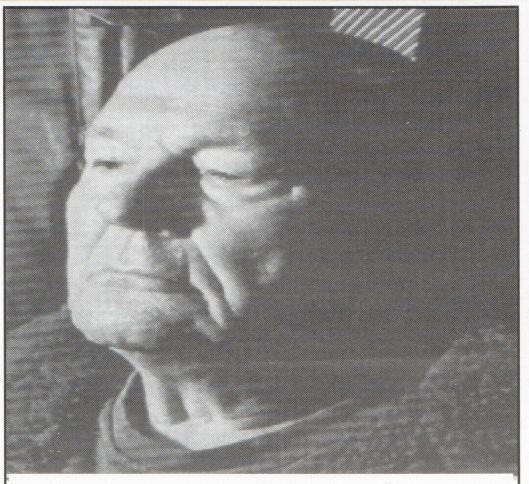
Taken from the book- 'Racial Hygiene. Medicine under the Nazis' by R.N. Proctor.

(Note: DDT was widely used in Britain, the USA and Western Europe until the 1960's when its dangerous and damaging effect on the environment was finally exposed)

John Demjanjuk

A Story of Persecution

(Or Was it Talmudic Vengeance?)



John Demjanjuk aged 89, as a frail and elderly prisoner in the dock of a German court in 2011.
He was convicted of carrying out mass killings as an SS guard at Sobibor concentration camp in 1943.
In 1988 he had been flown to Israel from the USA after being stripped of his American citizenship.
In Israel he faced trial for the mass murder of Jews at Treblinka in 1942 and 1943. He was found guilty and sentenced to death by the Israeli judge. But there was sufficient doubt about the evidence for him to be eventually (after five long years of legal campaigning) found not guilty in 1993 by the Israeli Supreme court.
After winning his appeal, the Israelis deported him back to the USA and his family home in Cleveland Ohio.

John Demjanjuk in 1981 when was initially charged with the killing of 900,000 Jews at Treblinka concentration camp in Poland, between 1942 and 1943.

Born in 1920, John Demjanjuk would have been just 22 years old when he was supposed to have carried out these mass murders.

The SS identity card allegedly issued to Ivan Demjanjuk at the SS Training school at Trawniki in 1942. The card might be a forgery from the Soviet era..

Ivan (John) Demjanjuk was born in the Ukraine, lived for over thirty years in the USA, was then stripped of his American citizenship and extradited to Israel, deported back to the USA and then extradited to Germany, and finally died in a German nursing home.
From 1981 until his death in 2012, he had fought to prove his innocence, that he was not the so-called war criminal that the world's media nicknamed 'Ivan the Terrible'.
If ever there was a case of a man being ruthlessly hounded by obsessive persecutors, it was John Demjanjuk. Even though he stood trial in Israel and was acquitted by an Israeli court, his tormentors would not leave him alone.
The same persecutors who had pursued him and convinced the world that he was a mass killer who had committed war crimes at the Treblinka concentration camp between 1942 and 1943 reluctantly accepted the judgement of the Israeli Supreme court, but refused to abandon their prey.
The same 'investigators' in the USA and Israel who insisted previously that he was without doubt the mass killer behind the war crimes at Treblinka now insisted that without doubt Demjanjuk was the killer from Sobibor.
At his first trial in Israel, witness after witness pointed at Demjanjuk and declared that as 'Holocaust' survivors they instantly recognised him from the guard unit at Treblinka. They were proved to be wrong. Yet when on trial in Germany between 2009 and 2011 the court accepted similar witness identification that now placed him as a guard at Sobibor.
After over 60 years had passed so how could this identification be taken as proven?

When the Demjanjuk case first surfaced in the USA in 1980, it was the combined forces of 'investigators' from the Office of Special Investigations (OSI) and Jewish lawyers from the Simon Weisenthal Centre (USA) that convinced the FBI and the US Justice Department to prosecute John Demjanjuk.
The key piece of evidence was an SS identity card which was claimed to have belonged to Demjanjuk when he was a wartime SS auxiliary.
The card together with other related documents had been supplied to the OSI by agents of the Soviet KGB.
The Soviet Union was, at this late hour in its existence continuing to pursue and harass anti-Communist Russians and Ukrainians living in exile.
Ivan (John) Demjanjuk was one such individual.
Later even the FBI questioned the authenticity of Soviet 'evidence'.

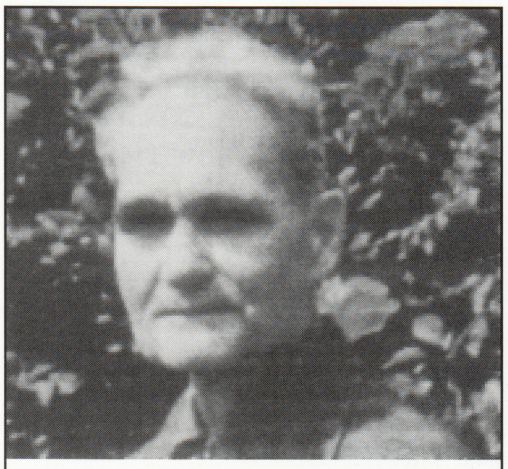
RUDOLF HESS

The Unresolved Case = There are still questions to be answered.

Rudolf Hess in a pre-1940 photograph.

In 1946 Rudolf Hess was sentenced to life imprisonment after being convicted of war crimes.
He died in Spandau Prison, Berlin in 1987, the only prisoner in the massive fortress - despite round the clock guards, it was alleged that Rudolf Hess had committed suicide by hanging himself in the prison garden.
Wolf Rudiger Hess always maintained that his father was murdered and was not physically capable of taking his own life by hanging.
Now in 2012, the official 1987 report by British Military Investigators has been released, but it fails to fully explain how Rudolf Hess died and still leaves questions unanswered.



The Lonely Prisoner of Spandau
Rudolf Hess died in the grounds of Spandau Prison in 1987.
He was 93 years old, frail and weak, suffering from arthritis in his hands.
How could he have hanged himself?

In March 2012 the UK government released the official Royal Military Police Special Investigation Branch report from the archives. The report covered events at Spandau Prison in Berlin on August 17th 1987, when Rudolf Hess, the sole prisoner at Spandau was reported to have committed suicide by hanging himself in the summer house of the prison garden, with a noose made from electrical cords taken from his cell.
Since 1966, Rudolf Hess had been the only prisoner held in Spandau, there were 600 cells in the prison; Hess was known as Prisoner Number 7.
Rudolf Hess was pronounced dead on Monday 17th August 1987, in less than 24 hours later the prison authorities had dismantled and burned the summer house, they had also burned and destroyed all his personal effects, including the wartime Luftwaffe uniform and flying suit he was wearing when he was originally captured in May 1941.
There was no attempt to preserve the scene of the death for examination by independent or neutral investigators.
Within days the demolition of all the prison buildings had begun and Spandau Prison was razed to the ground.
It seems that as soon as Hess died, the Allied Military authorities immediately put long standing plans into action to finally dissolve the wartime joint military administration of Spandau and to obliterate all traces of the former prison and its last remaining prisoner.
A formal autopsy report on Prisoner 7 (Rudolf Hess) was carried out on August 19th by a Medical Examiner from the London Hospital Medical College, the autopsy took place at the British Military Hospital, Berlin and was witnessed by military representatives from Britain, France, the USA and the USSR, the former wartime Allies.
After a rapid legal representation before a German court, and despite obstructions by British officials, Wolf Rudiger Hess succeeded in getting a second autopsy of his father's body by a team of German medical examiners.
There were, not surprisingly conflicting opinions about the death.
Although under guard by American soldiers at the time of death, the Hess legal team did not receive a report from the American guards on duty; they could not inspect the site of the death because the summer house had already been destroyed and the cord allegedly used by Rudolf Hess had 'mysteriously' disappeared!
Wolf Rudiger Hess raised serious doubts about his father's health, about the so-called Hess 'suicide note' being a forgery, and about his father's physical condition at the time of death.
He believed that Rudolf Hess was murdered.
Rudolf Hess was eventually buried in the Hess family plot at Wunseidel in March 1988.

" Hess was a frail 93 year-old man who could just barely drag himself from his cell into the garden. How was he supposed to have killed himself in this way ?"

Wolf Rudiger Hess in a press statement in 1992.

The Ideological Roots of 21st Century National Socialism

The Ideological Roots of Modern National Socialism are to be Found in the Principles and Theories Laid Down in the Germanic-SS in the 1940's.

The Germanic-SS Developed the Concept of a Pan-European National Socialist Movement Which Embraced All European Nations. Those ideals Spread Beyond 1945 and Evolved Into the Form of National Socialism Advocated by British Movement Today.

This is how it was...
National Socialist children in the 1930's British Movement seeks to regain that level of belief and enthusiasm in our own children in the spirit of the '14 Words'

" A Folk that Honours its Ancestors will Always have Children; Only those Folk who Know no Ancestors are Childless." Heinrich Himmler.

We MUST SECURE THE EXISTENCE OF OUR PEOPLE AND A FUTURE FOR WHITE CHILDREN.
'14 Words'

The American NS revolutionary David Lane, who coined the simple truth of the '14 Words', correctly observed,

"Today's White race makes up between 8% - 10% of the world population, and approximately 2% are White females of childbearing age or younger."

The brutal arithmetic is clear. If we are to survive as a race, if we are not to be driven to extinction in our racial homelands, then the White British and the White Europeans must defend, promote and increase a sense of collective racial and national pride and push the concept of the '14 Words' out into the mainstream, out to the broadest possible audience and alert them and awaken them to the threat to our Folk and race.

But it is a pointless struggle by today's generation of National Socialists and racial Nationalists if they do not pass on the belief, knowledge and dedication of our Cause to their children.

Many modern NS and racial Nationalist publications carry the slogan, "WHITE PRIDE - WORLD WIDE".

Exactly what does that mean ?

An American NS booklet entitled, " Aryan Beginnings for Children" makes the point, " Teach them pride...and they will continue to battle for the cause."

It means exactly what it says, it is up to White Aryan parents to teach their children racial and national pride so that those children will grow up with a fully informed idea of the great achievements, the history, heritage and traditions of their folk. Nobody else is going to do it, certainly not the schools. To quote the odious former Prime Minister Tony Blair, "Education, Education, Education".

If you as a White Aryan parent do not teach your children racial and national pride then the future is lost. There will be no realisation of the '14 Words'. Make sure that you pass on the torch so that your children will carry the flame of National socialism onwards into their future and the future of their children.

To quote David Lane again,

"May each of us continue to learn, to gain knowledge and use that knowledge to aid our families, our folk and our future. To the fourteen words we remain ever faithful!"

Talking About the '14 Words' is One Thing
But Living Completely According To The Meaning Is Another

Our Readers Say.....

The opinions expressed in these columns are those of the contributors and do not represent official British Movement policy or opinion.

Dear Broadsword

In recent issues of Broadsword there was a series of articles on the authenticity of the book,
'The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion'.
Broadsword readers might be interested to hear about a much earlier book that raised similar questions and may have inspired the writing of the 'Protocols'.

In Berlin in 1868 a German diplomat called Hermann Goedsche published a novel entitled 'Biarritz', the author appeared under the English sounding pseudonym of Sir John Retcliffe, but the book was written in German.
Various editions of the book were published in the later years of the 19th Century and around the time of the Great War, significantly one late edition being printed in Munich in 1924.
Of particular interest is one chapter entitled, 'Auf dem Judenkirchhof in Prag' which translates into English as 'At the Jewish Cemetery in Prague.'
This chapter was separately reprinted as a booklet in its own right, the first recorded version being published in Berlin in 1919. This pamphlet had the extremely long title of; " Das Geheimnis der judischen Weltherrschaft, aus einen Werke des vorigen Jahrhunderts, das von den Juden aufgekauft wurde und aus dem Buchhandel verschwand."
Which translates into English as; " The Secret of Jewish Domination of the World, from a work of the previous century that was bought up by the Jews and disappeared from the booktrade."

This single chapter "At the Jewish Cemetery in Prague", is claimed by some sources to be the inspiration for the writing of "The Protocols" in book form in Russia in 1905.

Not surprisingly this separate chapter was reprinted in Germany in 1933 with an introduction by Johann von Leers, a prominent legal scholar in the NSDAP.
As far as I am aware, the only recent English version of the "Jewish Cemetery in Prague" was reproduced in the USA in 1993 by Liberty Bell Publications and has not appeared since.
Do any Broadsword readers have any further information about this reproduced and translated chapter?
Perhaps further research by Broadsword magazine might be in order, possibly leading to an article on the publication?

National Socialist regards

Dear Broadsword,
I enclose 'A Reminiscence' of the late Alan Smith, I hope it will be of interest to readers.
" Saxnot" - North Essex

A Reminiscence

Alan Smith, who died on 6th June 2008 aged 77 years in North Essex, was a political activist and NS stalwart in the Waltham Forest area of east London in the 1970's. Well known among those in the local National Front and British Movement.
I first met Alan in 1975 at a BM meeting held near Victoria Station, London. Later on, he related to me his recollections and observations as a 13 year old wartime evacuee from Walthamstow, east London to the south coast.
In 1943/44 he witnessed the endless motorised columns of US troops along English country roads; the drivers being mostly Negroes. The young Alan was astonished, coloured folk were then a very rare sight indeed. One day while a column of trucks were passing through a village the boy heard the squeal of brakes. He ran to see what the commotion was. A US truck had run over a woman, who lay crushed underneath the front wheels. Shocked, he could only stand and stare as the black driver jumped down from the cab and proceeded to walk back up the line of vehicles, whereupon he got in and sprawled out in the back of a jeep! The build-up of US troops increased prior to D-Day. The boy, Alan, disliked their swaggering gait; their gum-chewing manner; their nonchalant attitude. He recalled the dramatic rise of reported rapes of local women; the dumped refuse of alcoholic revelries and discarded condoms.
Seeing German prisoners of war, he remembered the contrary impression they made when, under armed escort, they marched down the road from the POW camp on their way to work in the fields on nearby farms. He noticed that somehow these men - the 'enemy' were different; not because they were captive, but beheld an air of dignity even in adversity. Their uniforms were ragged in places, but they exuded the victory of spirit. Back at the camp they would construct toys and models, utilising old wooden boxes and small pieces of metal, then give them away to local children. Like the rest of the local populace the boy was amazed at their courteous manner. In the immediate post-war years, contrary to wartime propaganda, Alan realised that National Socialist Germany, despite the half-truths, disinformation and misinformation as the menace to Western civilisation, was its sole bastion of defence!
BM founder, Colin Jordan summed it up precisely regarding the rise of Adolf Hitler::-
"He came as saviour to a stricken West, but the makers of ruin defeated him. Now their record proves He was Right!"
Alan Smith, as a man, resolved to become active in the fight for national and racial resurgence. He remained aware and active up until his death.
In Memory of Alan Smith.
16th June 1930 - 6th June 2008.

RADICAL OPINIONS

Opinions expressed in this column do not necessarily reflect the official British Movement position or policy but are included to stimulate debate and discussion on a wide range of topics of interest to our National Socialist and racial Nationalist readership.

SOMETHING NEEDS TO CHANGE

As a country we are literally unable to deal with the sheer numbers of foreign nationals who arrive here every day, expecting to be housed and cared for by our state benefit system. While those of us who are born and raised here, all our lives, sit in dumb amazement and see time after time our fellow Brits wait in vain to receive the most basic level of support and care.

We learn that unemployment levels have hit a new record. So why are the UK's doors still opening and accepting not only Europeans, but also thousands from every part of the world known to man ?

Who is not scared to say , 'Enough is enough' or 'Shut the door, no more' ?

Not one member of our elected government will dare to speak up, because over the past ten years our money grabbing ministers have knowingly allowed an army of our biggest, western hating enemy to build uncontainable numbers right here amongst us.

I am not afraid to name them.....Muslims.

The very mention brings to mind horrific events such as 9/11; the slaughter of Russian school children by Chechyen rebels; and the increasing number of attacks on Christians all over the world.

After the attacks in our country, why did our government, for some reason, only ban Islamic groups such as Al Ghurabaa, using a hastily drafted terrorism act, instead of listening to the public and cracking down on the Islamic influence that was sweeping parts of Britain?

We now have Sharia Law courts active here in the UK, ruling on issues ranging from divorce through to domestic abuse. It's one thing to say well they aren't our women who are forced to hide from the world's view by wearing a burka, but again times are changing.... vast parts of some British towns and cities have become 'No Go Zones'. Gangs of Muslim men walk OUR streets dealing out their form of Sharia Law attacking teachers, young White British teenagers and increasingly our daughters in a campaign of terror that leaves far too large a number of British nationals afraid to even walk their own streets.

Sounds like a war-zone?

Our under-funded Military are away from home, fighting , and all too often being killed or maimed by the same groups of people that live here in peace and safety thanks to our military's efforts. Our Armed Forces time and again return home with not only physical but also life changing damage to their mental health, due to the horrors they witness. OUR government then thanks them by cutting pay or extending their time spent abroad on active service. They put our troop's families in crumbling housing, sending the troops back to Afghanistan with equipment they know is useless.

But still worse... When our heroes return home to march proudly through their regiment's home town, instead of grateful Brits waiting to cheer them, they face scum sent to intimidate and humiliate them, while their children and families look on helplessly. Imagine your child waiting for Daddy to return from war and hearing those 'scum bags' screaming "British soldiers burn in Hell"! Insults screamed by a group of Islamic terrorist supporters like 'Muslims against Crusades.'

And imagine being a soldier and hearing those protesters screaming "Die!" at you as you return home after seeing friends blown to pieces.

'They' burn our flags and our poppies while the police can't or won't act. The police are controlled by our government, the levels of police officers available to deal with unrest is now far too few, as the recent riots have shown. We are being murdered on our streets daily, but no media reports it. Charlene Downes was one of a massive number of White British girls preyed upon, abused and finally murdered by a Muslim, but most of the British public have ever heard of her. Why? Because our government is too busy selling our resources to the EU to care. The public is terrified of being labeled "racist" if they object or try to press for change, they are isolated and alone.

The time has come to put the British people first. The people who are British by birth, British by heritage and British by ancestry. Not British by bits of paper or Civil Service decrees. This is not about hatred for any other race or creed, this is about the British majority coming together to take OUR country back. To regain what was ours, and to change things for the better. It is not too late to reverse the changes which were forced on to our country by politicians who betrayed the trust our people placed in them, as they handed over our country to whoever came here to settle and take over our neighbourhoods.

Why have so many been allowed to settle here permanently?

Why have so many been allowed to stay here even though they came here illegally?

Why have so many been allowed immediate access to council housing, social security and medical care?

Why have our laws and legislation been changed to accommodate them?

THIRD WORLD IMMIGRATION - Brings Third World Diseases
Rickets- The Scourge of Victorian Britain Has Returned

All over Europe concerns are growing about the high prevalence of Vitamin D deficiency in the non-European minority populations.
This has led to an escalating percentage of ethnic minority children suffering from related diseases and medical conditions; particularly rickets and hypercalcaemia.
They are suffering because their bodies, their physiology is not suited to our climate conditions. Nature dictates that they do not belong here in Britain and Europe.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WOMEN"S DAY

JUNE 6th

Vitamin D deficiency is often the result of lack of sunlight to the body, in White Europeans this is rarely a problem because as a race we have evolved biologically to cope with the lack of sunlight and daylight hours in our northern winter and the hours of sunlight in our often overcast climate. However medical studies across Europe, including Britain show that non-whites living in Northern and Western Europe are showing a high degree of Vitamin D deficiency and related medical problems; hypercalcaemia, which creates too much calcium in the bloodstream causing heart problems, multiple sclerosis, cancer and diabetes.
All putting additional strains on our health and social services.
There are escalating numbers of ethnic minority children suffering from rickets, a disease usually associated with poverty in Victorian Britain and virtually eradicated in the last 50 years.
A report by the International Journal of Obstetrics and Gynaecology in 2003 examined this rising tide of medical problems. It surveyed 160 women from non-European groups in South Wales and tested their Vitamin D status in early pregnancy. Over half needed Vitamin D supplements.
It would appear that the longer such women had been in the UK, the lower were her Vitamin D levels. This also was true of those born in the UK.
Another study showed that a large number of women from non-white groups in the Cardiff area were substantially deficient in Vitamin D. This problem was not found in pregnant local White women.
It has now been the policy of the Department of Health to routinely issue special Vitamin D supplements to all pregnant women from ethnic minority groups. This policy was quietly introduced 20 years ago but has not been widely advertised for obvious reasons.
An article from Natural News in 2010 states that after the eradication of rickets in post - Victorian Britain and across Northern and Western Europe, there has in recent decades been a resurgence of rickets and related conditions concentrated in the settled immigrant populations of people of African and Asian descent. This is because their darker skins are designed to protect their bodies from damage by strong sunlight, but in the European climate it is less effective at producing Vitamin D from the weaker sunlight. In addition these communities tend to wear more clothing when living in Britain which blocks out even more sunlight.
In Britain the NHS is now having to put extra resources into those towns and cities with larger ethnic minority communities to provide supplements for pregnant women and children from non-white communities. The special clinics providing treatment for rickets in ethnic minority children are mostly based in places like Bradford, Leicester, Birmingham, Blackburn, Rochdale, Manchester and London.
This is surely biological proof that these people do not belong in Britain or Europe. Living in our northern climate is damaging their health and the health of their future generations.
Nature designed their bodies for life under a tropical sun. For their own sakes they should return to the lands that Nature herself intended them to live.

BUILDING AN N.S. FUTURE

The creation of a National Socialist state in Great Britain is the ultimate goal of British Movement, and in order to achieve the creation of a National Socialist 'New Order' in the UK, we must first create the political conditions by which this situation can be realised.
This will be a long and difficult struggle, but it can be done and for the future of our people it must be done. We must right the wrongs inflicted upon our people in the name of multi-racialism and multi-culturalism, we must regain the birth-right of our people taken from them by stealth and the lies of democratic politicians and Left-wing ideologists. So-called progressive thinkers and opinion makers who have corrupted our nation's psyche.

We Will Have Our Country Back!

The Vast Majority of People are not Capable of Assimilating a Message, Particularly a Political One, Unless it is Drummed into Their Minds Again and Again and Again. John Tyndall

All too often British Movement activists are faced by skeptical people, who say,
"Yes, I agree with what you are saying about the state of the country and there I don't want the immigrants here.
But it's too late now to change things."
These people are wrong. It needs a determined body of dedicated and determined activists and propagandists to change things and not only are those skeptical people wrong but they are usually the type of people who constantly complain about the state of the country, immigration, illegal immigrants etc. but want somebody else to deal with it and either can't or won't do anything about it themselves. These same people are also the ones who will say something along the lines of,
" Yes I agree with what you are saying and doing but it's just the Hitler thing - you won't get anywhere with it while you put Hitler in your literature."
They are wrong again!
British Movement is a British National Socialist organisation, if we refer back to the days of pre-1939 Germany, it is because that was the period when National Socialism was visibly operating unhindered by wartime conditions and was demonstrating just how a Folkish state could rebuild the nation and concentrate all its efforts on the racial, economic and social welfare of its people. We look back to those years because those years prove that National socialism works.
This does not mean that modern British National Socialism is living in the past or existing on a diet of nostalgia for the politics of Germany over 70 years ago. The British people have been fed a diet of anti-National Socialist propaganda for over 80 years and when that curtain of lies is torn down they will see that we are right.
British Movement propaganda and promotional literature spread out by whatever medium at our disposal is the sword that will cut through the curtain of lies. All it requires is the effort and the will of dedicated and determined British National Socialist activists to make it happen.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

The views and opinions expressed on this page represent the views of our readers and their publication does not indicate support or endorsement of those opinions or adoption as official British Movement policy.

Dear Broadsword,

The 'Guardian' newspaper recently carried an article about the wartime Allied air offensive against German cities between 1942 and 1945. In particular the firestorm attacks on cities like Hamburg and Dresden which resulted in massive civilian casualties.

I noticed a few days the letters page of the 'Guardian' where the usual crop of letters by soft-left liberals responded to the details of Dresden, handwringing over the loss of innocent civilians while destroying the evil Third Reich. However one letter on June 25th really caught my eye because the writer fully approved of the actions of 'Bomber Harris' and the attack on Dresden and I quote;

" As the son of a refugee from Hitler, I for one am glad that the war against an enemy of unspeakable degeneracy and evil was prosecuted with such vigour and clarity."

The letter was signed by Adam Kirby. Singapore.

So obviously this son of a refugee from Hitler fully approves of the mass destruction of an historic city with the accompanying annihilation by firestorm of thousands of defenceless civilians; women, children, the elderly, war-wounded hospital patients and refugees.

Amazing the hypocrisy that some enemies of National Socialism can display!

OBITUARY

Anthony (Tony) Hancock
Died June 11th 2012
Aged 65 years.

Broadsword is sad to report the death of Tony Hancock the Nationalist publisher and owner of the Historical Review Press.

Tony Hancock was well known to many British Movement activists and had collaborated on numerous projects with the BM Sunwheel Office team. His death will be a great loss to the cause of British racial Nationalism.

Dear Broadsword,

'Britain in the 1950's'

The article on this subject in Broadsword issue 42 struck a chord with me as I also grew up in the 1950's. To use the current jargon, there was 'social cohesion' or a sense of community, especially in our market towns and rural villages.

Basically Britain was a White, homogeneous nation. Our high streets were still dominated by small businesses. the retail trade had not yet become dominated by the supermarkets. Our industry was still mainly controlled by British-owned companies, employing indigenous British workers. Our city and town centres were not plagued by the consequences of the street-drug trade and binge drinking or gun and knife crime.

In fact in many areas people could leave their homes without locking their doors and not worry about burglaries. Life proceeded at a much more leisurely pace !

The 1950's was also the decade before property developers started to desecrate our countryside by encroaching on the 'Green-belt' and destroy historic town or city centres by constructing shopping malls, concrete precincts and tower blocks, which became the 'sink estates' of today.

Our countryside and rural environment was not yet threatened by the expansion of road and rail networks and the growth of airports. Wind turbines had not yet appeared on the horizons and there were no problems with 'Travellers'.

Our education system and the media and entertainment industries were not yet totally dominated by those with a Liberal/Left mindset and political agenda. The decades of brainwashing with multi-racialism, multi-culturalism, ethnic diversity etc. etc. were yet to come!

However, I do not believe that the 1950's was a 'Golden Age'. It was a period of calm before the storm. It was also a time of rationing, many people were still living in very poor housing housing conditions, (outside toilets and bath-houses). By current standards many people were living in poverty, there were still slums. There were no labour-saving devices, thus it was a time of domestic drudgery, especially for women. Life expectancy was much lower.

The 1950's was also the decade when there was real signs of the coming national decline and decadence. The tide of immigration was already lapping on our shores, there were race riots in Nottingham and the Notting Hill area of London in 1958. The British Empire was rapidly falling apart. The Suez Crisis in 1956 showed that we had become puppets of the USA and their alien financial masters.

For those who wish to believe in a 'Golden Age', I say look to the future.

The Golden Age will arrive when British Movement comes to power and we create a British National Socialist Folk Community.

The Golden Age will come when,

"WE WILL HAVE OUR COUNTRY BACK!"

Hawkwood N.S.

"Loyalty, spirit of sacrifice, discretion are virtues that a great nation absolutely needs, and their cultivation and development in schools are more important than some of the things which fill out our curriculums today."

THE TOULOUSE KILLINGS
The Consequences of French Multi-Culturalism
The Media Antics During the Shootings

Toulouse - France- March, 2012.

Immediate Media Speculation That The Shootings Were the Work of Evil Racists a 'Lone Wolf' Gunman From the 'Far-Right'.
In the UK the 'Guardian' ran a headline on March 20th entitled "Four shot dead at school. Is racist serial killer stalking France?"
Great emphasis was placed on the belief that only a crazed white racist would have carried out the earlier shooting of black and north African soldiers followed by the killings at a Jewish school.
There were comparisons made to the killing spree in Norway by Anders Behring Breivik and the assassinations carried out in Germany by the NS Underground. The liberal media journalists were in no doubt that the Toulouse shootings were racially motivated and had to be the work of 'neo-nazis'.
It was quickly pointed out by professional anti-racists that in 2008, three White French paratroopers had been suspended from a local regiment for "neo-nazi behaviour".
The British media spoke earnestly of the hunt across France for "a gunman presumed to be a racist, anti-Semitic serial killer."
Then the reality as the killer was identified as a Muslim of North African descent.
Mohamed Merah was certainly not a White racist. Mohamed Merah claimed to support al-Qaida and stated that he was a 'mujahid'.
A rapid loss of media interest in the UK followed the ending of the siege and the death of Mohamed Merah. There was no longer any anti-racist mileage in the story.

POLITICAL POLICE RAID
THE A K CHESTERTON TRUST

March 8th & 9th 2012
Liss House
Hampshire

Another blow by the British state against freedom of political thought and expression.

On the morning of March 8th 2012 the premises of Liss House, the home of Mr Colin Todd, the trustee and secretary of the AK Chesterton Trust was raided by a sizeable body of both uniformed and plain clothes police. (CID & Special Branch).
The reason given for kicking in the doors and storming into the property was given as being the result of "A member of the public had complained about a shotgun being fired somewhere near Mr Todd's property."
Although the initial excuse for the police raid was the alleged shotgun incident, the police searched Mr Todd's address and removed his computers and a quantity of documents, which had nothing to do with firearms of any kind.
Mr Todd was arrested and held at Winchester Police Station for 24 hours.
Since the raid a member of the public has come forward to state that the alleged shotgun blast was in fact an exploding military style thunder-flash which appeared to have been thrown from a white van into the grounds of Liss House.
<The occupants of an almost identical white van later joined the police searching the property>
Mr Todd is seeking to take whatever legal action is necessary to recover his property, to clear his name and take whatever action he can against the Hampshire police for the raid on his home and the seizure of his computers and other property.

Broadsword will update its readers as this case develops.

The Persecution Continues
The gravestones of the Hitler family are to be 'removed'.

March 2012 - Leonding - Austria

The petty-minded and vindictive attitude of so-called democratic politicians and their obsession with political correctness knows no limits. The gravestones of the parents of Adolf Hitler have been removed.
The tombstone features black and white portraits of Alois and Klara Hitler, Adolf Hitler's mother and father. The village mayor, Walter Brunner claims that the gravesite has been a place of pilgrimage for 'neo-nazis' and alleges that the stone has been removed at the request of a "descendant".
It is now over 70 years since Adolf Hitler last visited his parents grave and over 90 years since the last Hitler family burial in the grave.
